Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. www.CooperativeBaptistFellowship.org

Church Freedom – We believe in the autonomy of every local church. We believe Baptist churches are free, under the Lordship of Christ, to determine their membership and leadership, to order their worship and work, to ordain whomever they perceive as gifted for ministry, and to participate as they deem appropriate in the larger Body of Christ.

Christian Ethics Today. www.ChristianEthicstoday.com

The Christian Ethics Today Foundation publishes Christian Ethics Today in order to provide laypersons, educators, and ministers with a resource for understanding and responding in a faithful Christian manner to moral and ethical issues that are of concern to contemporary Christians, to the church, and to society. The Christian Ethics Today Foundation. Joe Trull, author of Putting Women in Their Place. Moving Beyond Gender Stereotypes in Church and Home. A must read book.

Bruce Prescott. Mainstream Baptists. <http://www.mainstreambaptists.org/>

We are not narrow-minded, dogmatic, legalistic or anti-intellectual. We believe that all truth is God's truth and we are open to discovering truth by scientific inquiry, philosophic reasoning, and human experience. (This is what Baptists need to become in order to reach the world for Christ, which is , after all, our objective—Shirley Taylor)

Jocelyn Anderson. www.womansubmit.blogspot.com

The false doctrine of female subordination to male authority lies at the very root of domestic abuse and domestic violence among professing Christians. The premise is despotic and abusive in and of itself. Domestic Violence among Christians will never be eradicated until gender equality is acknowledged and practically implemented. Two Books: Woman, this is war—Gender, slavery and the Evangelical caste system, due in July (includes interview by Shirley Taylor, bWe Baptist Women for Equality); Woman! Submit

Equality Central. www.equalitycentral.com/forum

We're modeling biblical equality and mutuality here. Scripturally, the main place this is found is in the two great commands: love God first and foremost, love your neighbor as yourself. This means that though we will have differences of opinion even about certain aspects of biblical equality, we welcome discussion from everyone. Our team leadership reflects our diversity". ~ Forum Moderators

Suzanne McCarthy. www.powerscourt.blogspot.com

There are no blogs authored by women in the top 50 biblioblogs. There are a few that are co-authored by women. What are women blogging about? Some say children and home. But other women are blogging about what life was like under patriarchy. (what her blog does).

Waneta Dawn. www.Submissiontyranny.blogspot.com

Waneta's passion is to educate people about the connection between the church's focus on wife submission and both physical and non-physical abuses.

Paula Fether. www.fether.net

Thoughts on the Bible, the world, or whatever is interesting. From an egalitarian view, of course.

Hillary McFarland. www.quiveringdaughters.blogspot.com/

We oppose anything centric to family other than Christ Himself, whether this means husband, pastor, father, religious practice, etc. We oppose teaching which communicates, verbally or through practice, that women cannot have a direct, one-on-one relationship with God through Jesus, that is effective for growth, sanctification, transformation, salvation, and purpose. In response to the Quiverfull nonsense that is taking hold in fundamentalists, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

For two years I researched the Bible's position on a woman's freedom to teach the scriptures as well as relevant historical sources that shed light on the hard passages of scripture regarding women in ministry.. My research on this subject resulted in a script that dealt with each hard passage verse by verse. From the script a 4 DVD multi-media teaching series was produced called "Women in Ministry Silenced or Set Free?" Since WIM was released in the spring of 2006 I have been contacted by Pastors as well as Christians in all walks of life regarding the effects that this series has had on them. The comments have ranged from thought-provoking to life-changing. A preview video clip of the introduction to the series can be seen at www.mmoutreach.org/wim.htm.

This blog Women in Ministry is filled with articles refuting John MacArthur's and other Complementarian's teaching about women in ministry, but the purpose of this article is not to refute MacArthur but to question how complementarians who believe teachers like John MacArthur can even allow a woman to teach the bible to other women? If she is not allowed to be a regular teacher in the church and she is not allowed to give outward overt leadership as that would be stepping into male territory, why do they even allow women to teach at all?
